

CV for Steen Treumer

Academic Degrees

- 1999 PhD, based on the Thesis "The principle of equal treatment in the EU procurement rules". The thesis was awarded the Spar Nord Foundation's Research Prize in 2000. The prize is awarded to a researcher at Aalborg University who has completed a particularly excellent research project. The award-winning project is selected by an expert committee and receives DKK 250,000 for further research.
- 1992 Master of European Judicial Studies (LL.M.). A postgraduate course in EU law developed by the European Institute of Public Administration, Maastricht, the Netherlands in collaboration with several universities.
- 1990 Master's degree in law (cand. jur.), Aarhus University.

Professional Appointments

- 2009-2021 Professor in public procurement law and privatization law, Faculty of Law, University of Copenhagen
- 2007-2009 Professor with special responsibilities in EU procurement law, Department of Law, Copenhagen Business School
- 2005-2009 Head of department, Department of Law, Copenhagen Business School
- 2001-2007 Associate Professor in commercial law, Department of Law, Norwegian Business School, Copenhagen Business School
- 2001 Associate Professor in commercial law, Aalborg University
- 1999-2001 Assistant Professor in commercial law, Aalborg University
- 1996-1999 PhD Candidate, Aalborg University
- 1995-1996 Deputy judge, the Danish Maritime and Commercial High Court, Copenhagen
- 1992-1995 Associate Professor in EU law, European Institute of Public Administration, Maastricht, Netherlands and Luxembourg
- 1990-1991 Deputy judge, the District Court of Odense

Visiting Scholarships etc.

- 2001 University of California, Berkeley, USA

Research Management

Extensive and varied experience concerning research and project management both as head of department and as an individual researcher.

From 2006 he was an Assistant Editor at the internationally recognized professional journal Public Procurement Law Review.

Editor of the international book series European Procurement Law Series, together with professor Roberto Caranta, University of Turin, Italy (the series was founded in 2009).

External Funding

2008-2010 EU Asia Inter-University Network for Teaching and Research in Procurement Regulation, European Commission, approx. 6 million DKK. Co-applicant and among the project managers in the consortium behind the project.

Other activities

Member of the Danish Complaints Board for Public Procurement since 2012.

Chairperson of the Danish Association for Public Procurement Law

Speaker of numerous national and international public procurement conferences in Europe and guest lectures at foreign universities.

Advised in relation to a large number of public procurement cases that have been pending at the Complaints Board for Public Procurement, the Courts of Denmark, and occasionally in foreign public procurement cases